All vendors must be in compliance with the Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990 (P.L.101-644) which prohibits misrepresentation in marketing of Indian arts and crafts products within the United States. The Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990 is a truth-in-advertising law. It is illegal to offer or display for sale, or sell any art or craft product in a manner that falsely suggests it is Indian produced, or a product of a particular tribe. Vendors that do not meet these criteria will be asked to leave.
